Alexandria Gazette THE PELOUBET & CO. STANDARD

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE ?.

A Decior WITH Too MANY PATIENTS .-Professor Virehow, the celebrated Berlin physic ologist, went list spring to Asia Minor for the sake of rest and recreation, and passed a large part of his vacation at Hissarlik, on an invita tion of Dr. Schliemann. On his arrival at Hissarlik he found several of the workingmen engaged at the excavation suffering from an obstinate fever, and although it is long sices he gave up practice, he took them under treatment. He cured them, and immediately his reputation as a magician was established there; and as there were many sick people everywhere in Asia Minor, and nowhere a dector or an apothecary, the name of the great magician spread with great rapidity from village to village. Every morning, when Virchew left the little wooden shanty in which he slept, he found, tirst a few persons, then a crowd, and at last a mass of people, encamped in front of the door, and waiting patiently, but with eager glances, for his appearance. To send them away was impossible, for they needed his help sorely, and they had often come from very long distances, on foot, on horseback, on camels, or carried on inters and in baskets. But to help them involved an slmost complete sacrifice of rest and recreation, for they were many, and the con-sultation generally demanded the employment of two or three interpreters. The sacrifice was made, however, and it has an odd result. For the purpose of making some geological observations Virebow had a hole dug in the bed of a driedup ri. or in the neighborhood, and people noup riar in the neighborhood, and people noticed that, until the hole filled up with water, the magician every day climbed down there and made some curious researches by means of a lighted candle. As soon as Virchow had left Hissarlik people assembled around the kole, fined its sides with neat brick work and marble, baptized it "Virchow's Well," and now, sire the magician has gone, they bring their sick to this well to be cured by drinking its water and by ablutions.
